PART B – NATURE OF SERVICES & PLATFORM DESCRIPTION

B.1 Description of Services

Menoessence Private Limited is a women's health and wellness platform specialising in women's midlife health. The Company provides an integrated suite of services, both online (via its digital platform) and offline (in-person, where applicable), including:

- Medical consultations with registered medical practitioners (including teleconsultation);
- Prescription of medicines, where clinically appropriate, by a registered doctor;
- Mental health support and therapy/counselling sessions with qualified therapists;
- Nutritional guidance and dietary planning with certified nutritionists;
- Health and fitness guidance tailored to specific needs;

B.2 Professional Qualifications

All medical practitioners engaged by or through the Company are registered with the National Medical Commission ("NMC") and/or the relevant State Medical Council. Therapists hold recognised qualifications in psychology or counselling. Nutritionists hold recognised certifications in nutrition and dietetics. The Company will, upon request, provide details of the qualifications and registration numbers of the professionals assigned to you.

B.3 Limitations of Service

The Client acknowledges and understands that:

- The services provided are not a substitute for emergency medical care. In the event of a medical emergency, the Client must immediately contact emergency services or proceed to the nearest hospital.

- Teleconsultation has inherent limitations compared to in-person examination. The consulting doctor may, at their professional discretion, recommend an in-person visit where remote assessment is deemed insufficient.

- The Company is a healthcare facilitation platform and is not itself a medical institution. Clinical decisions are made solely by the registered medical practitioners engaged through the platform.

Client's Signature: _____

- Outcomes of treatment, therapy, or nutritional guidance cannot be guaranteed, and individual results may vary.

Client's Signature: _____

PART C – INFORMED MEDICAL CONSENT

C.1 Consent to Teleconsultation

I, the undersigned, hereby give my free, prior, and informed consent to receive medical consultation through the Company's platform via video, audio, and/or text-based communication with a registered medical practitioner. I understand and acknowledge that:

- The consulting doctor is registered with the NMC and/or the relevant State Medical Council and is legally authorised to practice medicine and conduct teleconsultations in India.
- The teleconsultation will be conducted in accordance with the Telemedicine Practice Guidelines, 2020, and all applicable regulations and ethical guidelines.
- The doctor will take a medical history, assess my symptoms, and provide clinical advice based on the information I provide. I understand that the accuracy of the consultation depends on the completeness and truthfulness of the information I disclose.
- I have the right to refuse or discontinue a teleconsultation at any time without prejudice to my right to seek care through other means, and I recognise that doing so may result in the suspension of benefits provided to me the Company.
- I have the right to seek a second medical opinion from any other registered practitioner of my choice.

C.2 Consent to Prescription of Medicines

I understand and consent to the following in relation to the prescription of medicines via teleconsultation:

- A registered doctor may, at their clinical discretion and in accordance with the Telemedicine Practice Guidelines, 2020, issue an electronic prescription (e-prescription) for medicines appropriate to my condition.
- I acknowledge my responsibility to disclose to the consulting doctor, fully and accurately, all current medications I am taking (including over-the-counter medicines, supplements, and herbal remedies), any known drug allergies, and any pre-existing medical conditions.

Client's Signature: _____

- I understand that certain categories of medicines (including Schedule X drugs and certain controlled substances) may not be prescribed via teleconsultation as per applicable law, and I accept this limitation.

- I accept full responsibility for following the prescribed dosage and instructions and for promptly reporting any adverse reactions to the consulting doctor.

C.3 Right to Withdraw Medical Consent

I understand that I may withdraw my consent to medical consultation or treatment at any time by notifying the Company in writing.

Client's Signature: _____

PART D – MENTAL HEALTH & THERAPY CONSENT

D.1 Consent to Therapy and Counselling

I give my free, prior, and informed consent to receive mental health support, therapy, and/or counselling services through the Company's platform. I understand that:

- The therapist/counsellor assigned to me holds recognised qualifications in psychology, psychiatry, or counselling, as applicable.
- Therapy sessions may be conducted via video, audio, or text-based communication, and I consent to this mode of delivery.
- I have the right to request a change of therapist, and to discontinue therapy at any time.
- The therapist may take notes for the session which will be bound by the same confidentiality rules and will not be disclosed except without my written consent.
- Mental health support provided through this platform is not a crisis intervention service. In the event of a mental health emergency or risk of self-harm, I will contact emergency services or a crisis helpline immediately.

D.2 Confidentiality in Therapy and Its Limits

I understand that all communications with my therapist are strictly confidential and protected under the Mental Healthcare Act, 2017, and applicable ethical guidelines. However, I acknowledge that confidentiality has the following legally recognised limits:

- Duty to Warn / Protect: If the therapist reasonably believes that I pose an imminent risk of serious harm to myself or to another identifiable person, the therapist may disclose the minimum necessary information to prevent such harm, including to emergency services or my emergency contact.
- Court Orders / Legal Compulsion: If a court of competent jurisdiction orders the disclosure of therapy records, the Company and/or therapist will comply with such order after taking all reasonable steps to protect my privacy.

Client's Signature: _____

- Mandatory Reporting: Where applicable law imposes a mandatory reporting obligation, the therapist will comply with such obligation, notwithstanding any confidentiality obligations.

Except in the circumstances described above, my therapy records will not be disclosed to any third party, including family members, without my explicit written consent.

Client's Signature: _____

PART E – PERSONAL DATA & SENSITIVE PERSONAL DATA CONSENT

E.1 Categories of Personal Data Collected

The Client acknowledges that the Company collects and processes the following categories of personal data:

- Identification data: full name, date of birth, age, gender, nationality, government ID details;
- Contact data: residential address, mobile numbers, email address;
- Emergency contact information;
- Health and medical data: medical history, current medications, allergies, symptoms, diagnoses, treatment plans, prescriptions, lab reports, and other clinical information shared during consultations;
- Mental health data: information shared during therapy and counselling sessions, mental health assessments, and therapist notes;
- Nutritional and fitness data: dietary habits, fitness levels, lifestyle information, and nutritional assessments;
- Platform usage data: session logs, communication records, appointment history, and technical data related to your use of the platform.

E.2 Purpose of Collection and Processing

Personal data is collected and processed for the following purposes:

- Delivery of medical, therapeutic, and nutritional services;
- Coordination of care among your assigned doctor, therapist, and nutritionist;
- Issuance and management of e-prescriptions;
- Maintenance of medical and health records;
- Communication regarding appointments, follow-ups, and health updates;
- Compliance with applicable legal and regulatory obligations;
- Improvement of the Company's platform and services, using anonymised and/or aggregated data only (identifiable data will not be used for this purpose without explicit written consent).

Client's Signature: _____

E.3 Sharing of Data Within the Care Team

The Client understands and consents to the sharing of personal and medical data among the members of the assigned care team (doctor, therapist, and nutritionist) on a strict need-to-know basis, solely for the purpose of delivering integrated and coordinated care. Each member of the care team is bound by applicable professional ethical obligations and patient confidentiality requirements.

E.4 Data Retention

The Company will retain personal data for the period necessary to fulfil the purposes for which it was collected, and in accordance with applicable law. Upon expiry of the applicable retention period, Client's data will be securely deleted or anonymised in accordance with the procedures described in Part F.

E.5 Rights as a Data Principal

Under the DPDP Act, 2023, you have the following rights in relation to your personal data:

- Right to access: to obtain a summary of the personal data held about you and the processing activities;
- Right to correction and erasure: to correct inaccurate or incomplete data, and to request erasure of data no longer necessary for the stated purpose;
- Right to grievance redressal: to have your grievances addressed by the Company's Grievance Officer (see Part J);
- Right to nominate: to nominate another individual to exercise your data rights in the event of your death or incapacity;
- Right to withdraw consent: to withdraw your consent to the processing of your personal data at any time. You acknowledge that withdrawal of consent may affect the Company's ability to continue providing services to you and will not affect the lawfulness of processing carried out prior to withdrawal.

Client's Signature: _____

PART F – DATA SECURITY, STORAGE & THIRD-PARTY PROCESSING

F.1 Technical and Organisational Safeguards

The Company implements and maintains appropriate technical and organisational measures to protect your personal and medical data against unauthorised or unlawful processing, accidental loss, destruction, damage, theft, alteration, or disclosure.

F.2 Third-Party Data Storage, Maintenance & Disposal

You are hereby expressly informed, and by signing this form you acknowledge and recognise, that the Company engages one or more third-party service providers ("Data Processors") for the storage, maintenance, and/or disposal of your personal and medical data. These may include cloud hosting providers, data centre operators, and technology infrastructure partners.

The Company confirms that all Data Processors engaged by the Company are strictly bound by written contractual obligations that require them to comply with the DPDP Act, 2023, and all other applicable Indian laws governing the protection, storage, and disposal of personal and sensitive personal data.

F.3 Data Breach Notification

In the event of an actual or suspected personal data breach that is likely to result in risk to your rights or interests, the Company will:

- Notify you promptly upon becoming aware of and confirming the breach, providing details of the nature of the breach, the data affected, and the steps being taken to address it;
- Report the breach in accordance with the timelines and procedures prescribed under the DPDP Act, 2023.

F.4 Data Disposal

Upon expiry of the applicable data retention period, or upon your valid request for erasure (subject to any overriding legal retention obligations), the Company will ensure that your personal data is permanently and securely deleted from all systems, including those of its Data Processors, in a manner that prevents recovery or reconstruction. You will be notified upon completion of such deletion upon request.

PART G – TELECONSULTATION-SPECIFIC CONSENTS

G.1 Mode of Consultation

I consent to receiving medical consultations through the following modes of communication, as may be appropriate in the clinical context (please strike through wherever consent is not given):

- Video consultation (real-time audio-visual communication)
- Audio consultation (telephone/voice call)
- Text-based consultation (chat/messaging, for follow-up and non-urgent queries)

G.2 Platform as Technology Intermediary

I understand and acknowledge that the Company operates as a technology intermediary that facilitates access to registered healthcare professionals. The Company is not itself a medical practitioner and does not provide medical advice. All clinical decisions are made solely by the registered professionals engaged through the platform.

G.3 Technology Failure Disclaimer

I understand that teleconsultation is dependent on the availability and quality of internet connectivity and technology infrastructure. The Company does not guarantee uninterrupted service and will not be liable for any interruption, delay, or failure of a teleconsultation session due to technical issues beyond its reasonable control. In the event of a technology failure during a consultation, the Company will make reasonable efforts to reschedule the session at the earliest opportunity.

PART I – GENERAL LEGAL PROVISIONS

I.1 Governing Law and Jurisdiction

Any dispute arising out of or in connection with this form or the services provided by the Company that is not resolved through the grievance redressal process shall be referred to and finally resolved by the courts of competent jurisdiction located in Bengaluru, Karnataka, India, which shall have exclusive jurisdiction over all such disputes. The parties expressly agree to submit to the jurisdiction of such courts and waive any objection to the venue or convenience of such forum.

I.2 Severability

If any provision of this form is found by a court of competent jurisdiction to be invalid, unlawful, or unenforceable, such provision shall be modified to the minimum extent necessary to make it valid and enforceable, and the remaining provisions of this form shall continue in full force and effect.

I.3 Amendments

The Company reserves the right to amend this form from time to time to reflect changes in applicable law, regulatory requirements, or its services. You will be notified of any material amendments and will be required to provide fresh consent where required by law. Continued use of the platform following notification of amendments will constitute acceptance of the amended terms, to the extent permitted by law.
